

Open Mind

Children pretend that this is a head of someone immigrating to America. They brainstorm why this person has left his or her homeland. These reasons are written inside the outline of the head. Children can use pictures, words, or sentences when brainstorming.

Adapted from Current Best Strategies for 4th Grade by Jane Duke, Bureau of Education & Research.